More About Us

This Week's Speaker: Liz Williams

President, Southern Food & Beverage Museum

This week the Club meets at the Southern Food & Beverage Museum. Liz Williams, President, will address the club. She has been interested in the cultural aspects of food through several careers. Besides her work with SoFAB she is a lawyer who writes about the legal aspects of food, reflecting culture, policy and economics. She has served in the US Army as a JAG officer, taught arts administration law and historic preservation law.

In addition she has been involved in several major economic development projects in New Orleans. She is currently working on a book about obesity lawsuits and other food-related litigation in the U.S.

Welcome Liz to the New Orleans Rotary Club!
