Today: Joe Pasternack

UNO Basketball Coach

UNO head coach Joe Pasternack is entering his second year on the Lakefront in 2008-09, and he has already given the program something it needed most: Stability.

Becoming the school's third head coach in three years in July 2007, Pasternack quickly made his mark. He led UNO to 19 wins, the school's most since 1997, and helped the Privateers defeat a nationally-ranked team (then-No. 21 NC State) for the first time since 1993.

The Privateers were the only team in the country to start the season 3-0 with all three wins coming on the road. UNO ended up winning more games (11) before Jan. 1 in school history. He quickly put his stamp on the UNO program by bringing in 11 newcomers for 2008-09 after his inaugural squad lost six seniors. The recruiting class was ranked among the best in the Sun Belt Conference

Pasternack has made an even bigger contribution off the court. The 31-year old was instrumental in the athletic department receiving the largest gift in school history -- $1 million from local businessmen John Georges and former UNO standout Gabe Corchiani - which is being used for a refurbished locker room as well as other program improvements.

"I could not be happier with the job Joe has done so far," said UNO Director of Athletics Jim Miller. "He understands the bigger picture of what it takes to win at this level. Whether it's recruiting relentlessly, caring for his players, motivating his coaches or fundraising, he understands and embraces it.

"With Joe at the controls and us being back in the Lakefront Arena, there is no doubt in my mind that this program is on the verge of being special again."

The 11th head coach in UNO history, Pasternack was a perfect fit with his New Orleans ties (a graduate of Metairie Park Country Day School) and impressive coaching pedigree.

For four years, he studied under legendary great Bobby Knight as a student manager at Indiana. After graduating with a marketing degree in 1999, Pasternack then embarked on an eight-year stint at California.

Working under head coach Ben Braun, now the head man at Rice, Pasternack was involved in every area of the program. Cutting his teeth as the video coordinator, he was promoted to assistant coach in 2001 and spent six seasons on the Berkeley bench before moving to the Crescent City. In his 13-year basketball career, Pasternack has been a part of eight NCAA Tournament teams.

Pasternack and his wife, Lindsay, have a son -- Joe IV.

Change in Lunch Charges May 1st

Charge Still Below Cost

The Board of Directors recently approved an increase in the lunch charge for all guests, visitors, past service members and members who pay for meals individually to $30.00. President Nimmo noted that this is still 12% below our actual cost per meal but for ease of handling and consistency, the charge was adjusted down. Please make note of this increase.

The Kiwis are coming! The Kiwis are coming!

GSE Team From New Zealand

The GSE Team from the south half of the South Island of New Zealand will be visiting our district from April 13 through May 14. They will be staying with members of our club from May 10-13. This is an excellent opportunity for clubs in our District to meet others from across the world and exchange cultural traditions. Biographies on each member of the visiting GSE Team are posted on the GSE page on the District website, www.rotary6840.org. The itinerary of the team will be finalized and distributed soon at a club meeting.

Connect with Club Member Alberto Musto (amusto@lsuhsc.edu) if you can help house, entertain, or educate our visitors during their brief time with us.

District Conference

That's right. If you miss District Conference, you'll miss out on a wonderful experience. There's something for everyone, whether it be fellowship or Rotary education. Conference will be held May 7-9, 2009 at the Hollywood Hotel and Casino in Bay St. Louis. Our fellowship begins Thursday, May 7 with a golf tournament at the Bridges Golf Course, followed by a social that evening. Bring your spouse, special friend, children you get the point. Everyone's invited.

District Conference offers several opportunities to promote your business. Networking opportunities abound during the Conference, but you've got to attend to reap the benefits. So, when the time comes, make sure you register and attend. Sponsorships are also available for the registration brochure, conference program, session sponsor, registration area and Food Fest. See the Conference Sponsorship brochure for details. Then there's the opportunity to brag about your business. The Conference Committee will be seeking ditty bag items and door prizes in the spring. So, when planning your promotional purchases for next year, add plenty to contribute to the Conference.

Hotel reservations should be made directly with the Hollywood Hotel. $89 per night for Wednesday and Thursday nights and $159 per night for Friday and Saturday nights, plus tax.

For Information contact Barbara Mauldin, Conference Chair, at docbarbara@yahoo.com.

For those wishing to play golf May 7, 2009.

Rotary and Social Networking

Rotarians help provide service through fellowship, and social networking is one of the many ways Rotarians are connecting online. Visit Rotary International's official social networking pages and join the conversation.

Facebook: See who some of the thousands of fans are on RI's official Facebook page. You'll find links to RI news stories and videos as well as comments and discussions. · End Polio Now Join The Rotary Foundation of RI's End Polio Now cause page on Facebook. You can make a donation to support polio eradication, invite others to be a part of the cause, and keep track of how many people you've recruited.

Twitter: Use this microblogging site to keep in touch and up-to-date with other Rotarians and friends of Rotarians.

LinkedIn: Network with other Rotarians and friends of Rotary, and see who they're connected to. LinkedIn is a professionally oriented social network that can help you share your knowledge and expertise. RI LinkedIn groups include the following: · Official Rotary International LinkedIn group · Rotary Foundation alumni · Rotary International Youth Exchange

YouTube: Rotary International has its own channel on YouTube that offers video content to those interested in Rotary. The YouTube channel supplements video on Rotary's Web site by providing Rotarians the means of embedding video onto their own sites. Rotarians, Rotaractors, and Interactors are encouraged to select from a growing collection of pieces from RVM: The Rotarian Video Magazine and from Humanity in Motion public service announcements. In addition, the YouTube channel allows you to be notified about new videos, and viewers can comment on the videos.

Note: These social networking sites are not owned by Rotary International, and RI is not responsible for the comments of others on these sites. To participate, you must join each of the social networks individually. On social networking sites, there are several pages titled "Rotary" that are not affiliated with Rotary International or The Rotary Foundation. Only the pages or groups in which RI officially participates are listed here.
